

DENVER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT FACTS

Ownership & Operation	City & County of Denver, Department of Aviation
Opening date	February 28, 1995
Location	23 miles northeast of downtown Denver Latitude: 39 degrees, 50 minutes, 57.8 seconds Longitude: 104 degrees, 40 minutes, 23.9 seconds Elevation: 5,431 feet
Size	34,000 acres (53 square miles/137.8 square kilometers)
Runways	Six runways: five 12,000 feet in length(3,600 meters); one 16,000 feet in length (4,800 meters) 12 runways at complete build-out
Elrey B. Jeppesen Terminal	1.5 million square feet (dual-sided) Two terminal buildings at complete build-out
Passenger Facilities	Ticketing – Level 6 Baggage Claim – Level 5 Passenger Drop-off – Level 6 Passenger Pick-up – Level 4 Ground Transportation – Level 5 International Arrivals – Level 5 north
Security Screening	Three locations in Terminal
Parking	40,000 spaces
Automated People Mover	Underground train serving the terminal and concourses
Concourses	Three airside concourses – A, B and C Five concourses at complete build-out
Concourse A	1,900 feet long, 1,220,000 square feet
Concourse B	3,300 feet long, 2,033,872 square feet
Concourse C	1,500 feet long, 750,000 square feet
Gates	95, including access gates to commuter facilities 300 gates at complete build-out
Annual Passenger Capacity	50 million as designed; 52 million in 2010 110 million at complete build-out
Airlines	14 commercial airlines, not including charter and regional carriers, offer nonstop service to more than 160 destinations worldwide
Passengers per Day	143,000 in 2010 (average)
Average Flights per Day	1,741 in 2010 (average number – arrivals and departures)

